

The golden tip

Dust is not visible in images, so there is no need for major cleaning.

Your home must be photographed, and soon you will be contacted by a photographer. Before we begin, we will give you some good tips to prepare your home so that your home is optimized in the final images. Here are eight good tips.

Enjoy!

Tip #1 Tidy up

This means no piles of paper, glasses, detergents, dishes, shoes and coats, fridge magnets and other eyesores. All rooms including the bathroom should be thoroughly picked up.

Tip #2 Surfaces

It is also important to tidy up all countertops. Therefore, remove all rags, washing-up brushers, pots, remote controls, newspapers and the like.

Tip #3 Make beds

To create as much air as possible in front of the camera, you should also make all the beds, open all the curtains and pull up all the blinds.

Tip #4 Christmas decorations

Avoid seasonal decorations such as Christmas decorations.

Tip #5 Light candles

Before the photographer arrives, it is a very good idea to turn on all the lights in the home, including candles. This creates a mood in the images.

Tip # 6 Make room

If you have lots of furniture and other items, you should remove some of them. Put some of the jackets from the overloaded coat hooks in closets and the like.

Tip # 7 The yard

Clean up in the yard. Mow the grass, remove any garden tools

Tip # 8 Create coziness

Your photos should present your home from its best side. Put out flowers, hang fresh towels up, etc.

It is a good idea to use the guide above in connection with an open house, as well as for presentations. This ensures that the prospective buyers receive the best possible impression of your home and its layout.
